Introduction by Bexi

Welcome to our enchanting musical evening at UK PonyCon! I am thrilled to welcome you to this extraordinary musical extravaganza. Tonight, we embark on a journey filled with melodies that will warm your hearts and lyrics that will inspire your inner pony. So, sit back, relax, or get your dancing shoes on and let the music transport you to Equestria as we kick off this unforgettable evening of harmony and friendship!

Friendship and Magic, Bexi

BlackenedBlue

Saturday 8.30pm - 9.15pm

Blackened Blue is an English metal and rock musician based in Nottingham, known for his biggest songs "All You Need" and "Infliction". He's returning to UK PonyCon to make some noise on stage once again. With his freshly-released debut record Sounds from the Shed making waves, you'll be sure to hear plenty of songs from that album at the show!

Coltastrophe

Saturday 7pm - 7.45pm

The Nameless Band from UKPC 2014 returns, now complete with name and new members. So get ready for some old school rock. These are Rockin Horses. Let there be ROCK!

This performance is a two performer acoustic set.

PrinceWhatever

Saturday 9.15pm - 10pm

PrinceWhatever is a long-standing MLP musician from the UK's south coast. He's been writing and recording heavy fandom tunes since the early days of season 2 with no plans to stop! Some of his most recognisable songs are things like Solidarity, Frailty and his rock cover of Open up Your Eyes! At UKPC he'll be performing Saturday night as well as selling his albums and other wares in the stalls hall! For more: <https://linktr.ee/princewhateverer>

BassPon3

Saturday 7.45pm - 8.30pm

A UK PonyCon regular, BassPon3 is back again bringing the beats and bass!

Pagan Pegasus

Saturday 10pm - 11pm

Pagan Pegasus is a 25 year old trans DJ and Producer from Scotland who has recently broken into the Brony Music scene, debuting at multiple conventions across North America earlier this year. Her main goal is to give back to the community and make music which inspires a new generation of fans to get involved with the fandom.
